

Salt Lake Democrat.
OGDEN CITY.
MONDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1927.
A DEACON
with attend to the Hall for the Improvement Association.
The following appears in the Ogden Herald, the Sunday paper of the Salt Lake Tribune in these the last days:
The monthly circuit meeting of the Improvement Association will be in the Ogden Ward Schoolhouse on Thursday evening, February 17, at 7:30 p. m.
PROGRAMME:
The Fourth ward choir will furnish music, and the hall will be attended by a quartet from the Fourth Ward Association.
First Ward Association—Historical Sketch.
Second Ward—Song.
Third Ward—Lecture on "Civil Government."
Fourth Ward—Quartet.
I should not wonder a "What" (aker) if the deacon in question were the same who attended to the Tabernacle on Monday, on the occasion of the nominating convention of the P. P. P., when the hated minions of the outside press were refused admittance because they might have learned more than was fit for the eyes and ears of the ungodly.
But there is more to be considered. Is the Fourth ward schoolhouse the property of the Improvement Association, or the latter public institutions under the territorial laws or municipal statutes? Who built the said schoolhouse? Was it only the members of the M. L. I. or their fathers, uncles and cousins gone? Did not public taxation collected in public expense, raise the public funds for the public purpose? This thing has gone on for just long enough, and a good deal longer than it would be tolerated in any other territory, the pet child of the Union which equals and equals all the other more it is humored by a so-called "Civil Government." Schoolhouses erected with public money have long ago been the property of the public, and no religious worship of an exclusive sect which would never extend even the most reasonable courtesies.
Indeed, not only the Third ward should deliver a lecture on "Civil Government," as promised in the programme above, but all the wards and their wardens need a sound and telling lecture on civil government, and some of the Mutual Improvement youths need lectures on being generally civil government having been entirely neglected in their families. Let the deacon attend the hall, although it does not belong either to him or his brethren and sisters; if that's not enough, let some of the police force who are not deacons.
General Notes.
Of course The Democrat will be there. Where? Why, don't you know? At Woodman's Hall next Thursday evening, when the Pleasant Hour Club will be another of their ever enjoyable temperance parties.
Divine services in the Tabernacle tomorrow night at 8 p. m. The 8 p. m. service in Saturday's Herald. "Divine" Yes, I divined the nigger in the woodpile, namely, a great and stentorian voice of harangues on to-day's election, when the priesthood's cat-o-nine-tails was laid on the back of the people's party with old-time vigor and J. K. K. Grant's relentless. For, let us be sure, this is not a Church and government in a Church in State government. It is all Church, as it always has been.
It is to be hoped that when these lines reach the entire membership of the Pleasant Hour Club, they will be a pleasant party by the liberals of Plain City, at which Assistant-Prosecuting Attorney Butterworth and other prominent citizens are likely to participate.
Early on Sunday forenoon a sudden hail storm broke loose, accompanied by thunder rains. It gradually subsided down to a faint but copious down-pour of rain, evening. Two landscapes with a little of white.
To be or not to be, that is the question for the people's party.
All the teams in town and many out of town were engaged carrying voters to and from the polling places. Fifth Street near Young's was crowded with vehicles, equine and pedestrian of all ages and sizes, two sexes and two parties, all day.
The receipt of the contributions for the officers by the Charleston earthquake, and from and by the humane citizens of Ogden upon the initiative and under the auspices of John A. Dix Post No. 3, A. R. C., has been officially and formally acknowledged by the Mayor and Clerk of that city, the men and pride of that California.
Tomorrow evening, at the Presby-terian Church, E. H. Anderson, Esq., County Superintendent of Public Schools, will deliver an address to the public meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. There will be good music. Three speakers and two special cases of the Northern Pacific and one of the Central Pacific, went west last night.
J. R. Bowler, of the Bowler House, Marshalltown, Iowa, went west last night, bound for Los Angeles.
Joe W. Browning returned from Salt Lake City last night from a very successful trip.
Major Erb passed through, westbound, last night's C. P. train.
The saloons were scrupulously closed all day long.
H. H. Smith, of Corinne, has returned from the South.
By telegram, of Farmington, came to town last evening. He returned this morning.
Today Major E. A. Littlefield under the postmaster, of the new postmaster, Dr. John L. Tyler.
The Liberal headquarters were re-opened to Fifth Street today, in more convenient proximity to the public, which are fully decorated and presented a happy appearance all day.
Rev. H. H. Spang in our midst, attending the Sabbath services of the Methodist Church.
P. H. Lamm arrived on the Utah Central from Salt Lake this morning.
The funeral of the little son of G. W. Hays took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
Win. Combs, the fellow who drew a million dollar ticket, of the Central Pacific, on December 30th, was found guilty of assault with intent to murder.
